The story begins with Mary, a young woman from Nazareth. Mary was engaged to a man named Joseph. One day, an angel appeared to Mary and told her that she would have a baby boy. The baby would be the Son of God.

Mary was afraid at first, but she trusted God. She said, "I am the Lord's servant; may it be to me as you have said." (Luke 1:38)

When the time came for Mary to have her baby, she and Joseph traveled to Bethlehem. They had to stay in a stable because there was no room in the inn.

That night, Jesus was born. Mary wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger.

The shepherds were watching their sheep in the fields nearby. Suddenly, an angel appeared to them and said, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; He is Christ the Lord." (Luke 2:10-11)

The shepherds went to see the baby Jesus. They found Him lying in the manger, just as the angel had said.

The shepherds were filled with joy. They spread the news about Jesus' birth to everyone they met.
