

College In Nepal: Confessions of an NRN - A Journey of Self-Discovery and Culture Shock

In her memoir, College in Nepal: Confessions of an NRN, Nepali-American author Sharmila Pant shares her experiences as a Non-Residential Nepali (NRN) student attending college in Nepal. After spending her entire life in the United States, Pant returns to Nepal for the first time to pursue her education. She quickly realizes that the country of her birth is a far cry from the one she left behind.
