In a world ravaged by climate change and on the brink of collapse, a young woman named Stella discovers that she possesses a unique power that may hold the key to saving humanity.

Stella is an orphan who has always felt like an outsider. But when she stumbles upon a hidden artifact, she learns that she is descended from a long line of powerful protectors known as the "Engineers." These Engineers once used their abilities to harness the energy of the Earth to create a utopia. But now, with the world in ruins, the Engineers have disappeared, and Stella must find a way to unlock her own powers before it's too late.

With the help of a ragtag group of survivors, Stella embarks on a perilous journey to find the last remaining Engineers and learn how to use her powers. Along the way, she must confront the dangers of a world that has been ravaged by war, famine, and disease. But Stella is determined to save her world, even if it means sacrificing everything.
