

Hold Me Down, Coleman High: An Unforgettable Journey into the Heart of Teenage Angst and Resilience

From the acclaimed author of "The Outsiders" and "Rumble Fish," S.E. Hinton introduces her captivating new novel, "Hold Me Down, Coleman High." This enthralling tale transports readers into the turbulent world of teenagers navigating the tumultuous waters of adolescence at Coleman High. Through the interwoven perspectives of several compelling characters, Hinton paints a vivid and thought-provoking portrait of the complexities, trials, and triumphs of teenage life.

A Tapestry of Teenage Struggles

In the halls of Coleman High, each student grapples with their own unique challenges: Jeff Lindsay, a football star grappling with his own feelings of inadequacy; Kerry Clayton, a rebellious loner longing for love and acceptance; and Geraldine Blackwood, a shy and bookish girl wrestling with her newfound popularity. As their paths cross and intertwine, they learn the true meaning of friendship, loyalty, and self-discovery.
