One day, Mr. Putter decides to plant a garden in his backyard. He goes to the garden center and buys some seeds and flowers. He plants the seeds and flowers in the garden, and then he and Tabby water them.

The next day, Mr. Putter and Tabby go outside to check on the garden. They are surprised to see that a big, beautiful bell has grown in the middle of the garden! Mr. Putter and Tabby are so excited about the bell. They ring it and ring it, and the sound of the bell makes them both happy.

Mr. Putter and Tabby decide to ring the bell every day. They ring it when they wake up in the morning, when they go to bed at night, and when they play in the garden. The bell brings them joy and reminds them of their friendship.
