I've been in the NBA for over four decades, and I've seen it all. From the glory days of the Boston Celtics and Los Angeles Lakers to the current era of the Golden State Warriors and LeBron James, I've had a front-row seat to the greatest players, coaches, and teams in the history of the game.

In my new book, My Forty Years Surviving NBA Divas, Clueless GMs, and Poor Shot Selection, I share my stories from a lifetime in the NBA. I talk about the highs and lows, the challenges and triumphs, and the unforgettable characters I've met along the way.

I've seen it all, and I'm not afraid to tell it like it is. In this book, I'll give you the inside scoop on the NBA, from the locker room to the boardroom. I'll tell you about the players who drove me crazy, the GMs who made me want to pull my hair out, and the coaches who made me believe that anything is possible.

I'll also share my thoughts on the state of the NBA today. I'll talk about the challenges facing the league, from the rise of social media to the increasing pressure on players to win. And I'll offer my own solutions for how to fix the problems that are plaguing the NBA.

If you're a fan of the NBA, then you need to read my book. I promise you, you won't be disappointed.
