Synopsis

Penny From Heaven by Jennifer Holm is a poignant and inspiring story set during the Great Depression. The novel follows the journey of 11-year-old Penny as she navigates the challenges of poverty, family struggles, and the search for hope.

When Penny's father loses his job, the family is forced to move from their comfortable home to a cramped apartment. Penny must adjust to a new school, new clothes, and the constant worry over how her family will make ends meet. Despite the hardships, Penny's spirit remains unbroken. She finds solace in her imagination, her friends, and the kindness of strangers.
