The WWF Supplement is a line of nutritional supplements that was first introduced in 1984 by the World Wrestling Federation (WWF). The supplements were developed by Dr. Jerry Graham, who was the WWF's head physician at the time. Graham believed that the supplements could help wrestlers improve their performance and recovery from injuries.

The original WWF Supplement line included a variety of products, including protein powders, creatine, and amino acids. The supplements were quickly adopted by many of the WWF's top wrestlers, including Hulk Hogan, Andre the Giant, and The Ultimate Warrior. The supplements helped these wrestlers build muscle, increase their strength, and recover from injuries faster.

The WWF Supplement line has evolved over the years, and it now includes a wide range of products to meet the needs of athletes of all levels. The supplements are still popular with wrestlers, but they are also used by bodybuilders, fitness enthusiasts, and anyone else who wants to improve their performance or recovery.
