

Visible Invisible Catholic Teen Visible Invisible Anthology Series

In the tapestry of life, there are threads that are visible and threads that are invisible. Our faith, our identity, and our artistic expressions are often woven together in ways that defy easy categorization. The "Visible Invisible Catholic Teen: Visible Invisible Anthology Series" invites you to explore these complexities through the eyes of young Catholics who are navigating the challenges and triumphs of adolescence.

Through their stories, essays, poetry, and artwork, these young people share their perspectives on faith, identity, and the transformative power of art. They grapple with questions about their place in the world, their relationship with God, and the challenges they face as they come of age in the 21st century.
