Anya is a skilled card player, but she's never played for stakes as high as this. When she's invited to participate in a high-stakes poker game, she knows that she's in over her head. But she's determined to prove herself, and she's willing to risk everything to do it.

As Anya plays, she quickly realizes that the stakes are not just financial. The other players are just as ruthless as she is, and they're willing to do whatever it takes to win. Anya must use all of her skills and cunning to survive, and she must be prepared to make some tough choices along the way.
